Lodging prices are based on how many people you bring and how many nights you stay. There are two prices listed above. The first is based on you renting our kitchen and cooking your own meals. In the graph above, they are in the white boxes on the left side of each column.

The second price is based on us cooking your meals. These figures are lowered to reflect the added revenue you bring us by choosing our staff to prepare your meals. On the graph above, these figures are on the right side of each column and are in gray boxes.

Cost for multiple nights is figured by multiplying the figures below by the number of nights in your stay.

*Note: We do not rent or cater to groups of less than 30.
